Seniors

I, John Hatton, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hatton was born February 26, 1935 on a farm near Fritchton, Indiana. Enrolling in Fritchton School at the age of six years, I have gone there 12 happy years. It was my good fortune in my Junior year to be one of the students to go to the typing contest at Vincennes. I was in the group that went to Evansville to take part in the Music Festival; as a Senior, I am one of the typists of the year book and also took part in the Senior play. I was graduated from the Fritchton High School May 7, 1953. It was my good fortune to graduate with 14 of my good friends with whom I started to school in the first grade. I have been in 4-H nine years out of the 12 years that I have been in school, with two years as Junior Leader.

I, Eugene Davison, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Davison, was born in Vincennes, Indiana, on January 7, 1935. I attended school there until the sixth grade when I moved to Fritchton. I played basketball on the Knox County Champions when I was in the seventh grade, and on the runnerup team the next year. I entered Fritchton High School in 1949, and I preceded to winning three letters on the varsity team. I also played baseball and softball. I was a member of the High School Glee Club and was in the tournaments at Evansville and Indianapolis. I was Sports Editor of both the Yearbook and School Paper, and participated in the Senior play.

I, Richard Lee Chambers, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Chambers, was born on the twelfth day of September, 1935 near Fritchton, where I have since lived. At the age of six I started to school at Fritchton and have been attending school there since. I am the youngest boy in my class. In my freshman and sophomore years I had the honor of attending two mathematics contests. In my senior year I was elected class reporter, general editor of the school paper, and art and picture placement editor for the annual. I also took part in the senior play. I have been in 4-H five years and a member of the boosters club for three years. I had the privilege in my senior year also to be a member of the Glee Club and to take part in the Music Festival at Evansville. I graduated May 7, 1953.

Frederick loves to drive very slow
when the highway is covered with snow.
He and Lee have made a sweet pair.
They call him "Curly" but straight is his hair.

Bob W. is handsome and strong and in sports is never wrong.
He doesn't like girls,
unless they have natural curls.

Tom's one desire is to be president and to be a Washington D. C. resident.
They will come in by the bushel and peck,
and his attention will be centered on the opposite sex.

Bessie is a cute little nucker,
not much bigger than a cucumber.
She's waiting to be a June bride and this she'll be with much pride.

Eugene is a great sportswriter,
when he sits down at his typewriter.
His column is bound to be tops,
since he's waiting to work with the Boston Red Soxers.

John M. is the laughter kid, always has a joke on his mind.
He's going to purchase a diamond ring,
for Betty M. a prettier little thing.

John H. is never noisy or loud
his mind is usually floating on a cloud.
He can make a typewriter click,
and someday he'll marry a sweet chick.

Bob W. is tall with long feet,
but a more quite boy you'll never meet.
He plans to manage a farm someday,
and then he'll have plenty to say.

Christine is cute and neat,
and in getting A's can't be beat.
She plans to be a secretary and wife and we hope she finds success in this life.

There's a chance for advancement and wages are higher.
At the time he is not interested in girls,
but he says in a few years he'll give it a whirl.

Carolyn is a great dancer,

she reminds you of the real dear, Prancer.
She has yet led for our team for three years and for her we've given many cheers.

Flora Jo is small and sweet,

and her personality can't be beat.
Bob has stolen her heart away,
and this seems to make her very gay.

Finis likes to work with nails and wood,

and if any one could build he could.
He'd like a new car, red and green,
then driving in town he's sure to be seen.

Mervin wants to be president of R. S. Steel

For in this business he'll be a big wheel.
And in the line of women he is sure to click for he's from the Fritchton suicks.

Harry is a lady's man.

He can woo them like no one can.
He is never awkward or shy,
and we think he's a grand guy.

Dacey is short and sweet

's a friend she can't be beat.
She wants to be a teacher and a wife and we all know she will lead a happy life.

Class Prophecy

While planning a place to take my vacation I decided to take a rocket ship to the moon. On May 7, 1973 I began my trip, buying my ticket at Forbes' Corner, famous Rocket Air Port on the out skirts of Fritchton, from Susie Folsch who is now a stewardess on a rocketship.

The pilot was Dick Chambers, a General in the World Rocket Ship Corp. The person setting next to me was Finis Fletcher a great engineer who had built the first bridge connecting Europe with the United States. We left earth at 8:00 A.M. and reached the moon at 6:15 A.M. When we reached our destination the first person I saw was Christine Jenkins, the hostess at the "Come Join Us Night Club". She greeted me cordially and invited me to stay to see the floor show. To my surprise the dancer was Carolyn Acot, doing a dance with atoms and protons. After leaving the Night Club I stayed in the hotel "Yoodoo Sta" owned by Marvin Ice a great selebrity who married a girl from the moon. They have ten little moon beams. The next day I visited the zoo and found Jim Utt the keeper. I ate my lunch, which consisted of four pills, at a great restaurant "Callstones" owned by Bob Petts, the moon's greatest Chief. After eating lunch I visted in the private planet of Flora Jo Marshall and Bob Fleck who are trying to invent a pill of eternalyouth I rode in a "Moon Jet" which is a taxie cab, and to my surprise the man at the control was John Hatton. We traviled at a low speed of 500 MPH since the traffic was rather thick that day. He took me to the "I Strain" theater featuring Croydon Bowers as the star. He is now a great opera singer. The usher who greted me was Eugene Davisson who is in charge of the Moonball league. They have won over all the other planets such as Mars, Venice, and Jupiter. Setting next to me in the theater was John Dunlap, owner of the RocketShip I come up on. His wife handles all the profit from his business, and that's the reason he is so successful. After leaving the Lyestrain Theater who do I see but Harry Manning a great driver for "Wreck No More" Jet Tricking Company. Before leaving the moon I visited the laborator "Cut Me Up" where Dacy Briner is the main instructor. Finally I decided I'd better be getting back to earth.

HOMEcoming

Christine Jenkins, senior, was crowned February 13, 1953, by Bob Petts, senior captain of the basketball team as Basketball Queen of 1952-1953.

Nancy Carr, Harold Robinson, Judy Goodwin, Robert Dutton, Billie Patrick, John Sandefer, and Marcia Sanneman began the procession as Phyllis Hatton and Jean Alice Megree played the "Military March". Then came the queen attendants and their escorts. They were Rose Marie Roche, freshman, gowned in a pink formal escorted by Mervin Ice. Dorothy Bosworth, sophomore, gowned in an aqua formal, escorted by Jim Utt. Anita Stewart, junior, escorted by Bob Fleck. Dacy Briner senior, gowned in an orchid formal, escorted by Eugene Davisson. Then came the queen, Christine Jenkins, gowned in a white formal with purple carnations as flowers, thus carrying out the school colors. The crown Bob Petts placed on her head was of purple carnations. The queen was then escorted to her throne on the stage where she reigned through the Fritchton-Decker Chapel game. The queen was saluted by the baton twirlers taught by senior Carolyn Root. Others taking part were the High School cheerleaders Carolyn Post, Dixie Briner, Myrna Hart. The Junior High yell leaders, Joan Davisson, Nancy Marshall and Rita Fleck. The reserve team consisting of Larry Carr, Penny Utt, Joe Goodwin, John Wampler, Charles Bates, Norman Snyder, Marvin Cook, Sylvan Ice, Connie Clark, Donald Hatton, Joe Sanneman, Gerry Welton and John Patterson also took part.

THANK YOU

Because of you, our sponsors and patrons, we have our 1952-'53 yearbook. Because of you, we can enjoy through the years this picture story of our high school years. Because of you, we have a yearbook that will often bring happiness to the students of our school and to the parents and friends who can enjoy with them the memories portrayed on these pages. To you, our sponsors and patrons, we are truly grateful.
